The Sailor Scholarship is based on the Columbus Honor Code which encompasses these eight qualities: Christ-Like, Obedient, Leadership, Upright, Mannerly, Beneficial, Unselfish and Studious. See the back of this form or page 2 for a description of each quality.

Please write an essay citing specific examples of what you have done while you have been a student at Columbus which demonstrates one or more of these qualities. LIMIT YOUR ESSAY TO 500 WORDS.

Any application received after Wednesday, April 15, 2020 will not be considered for the scholarship.

COLUMBUS HONOR CODE

This award is given to two students who best exemplify the characteristics that make up the Columbus Honor Code. They are:

- Christlike: Humble, gentle, sincere, uncompromising in faith, courageous in good example, fervent in religious devotion and prayerful.
- Obedient: Models the spirit of obedience to God, to the Church, and those in authority.
- Leadership: Provides Christian leadership and influence upon fellow students. Judgment well founded, respected and accepted. Cooperation and responsibility proven by carrying out projects, duties, and assigned tasks.
- Unselfish: Charitable to faculty, staff, fellow students and visitors, by being courteous, considerate, helpful, cooperative, and willing to sacrifice for others.
- Mannerly: Models the poise and manners of a Christian citizen by their behavior in and outside of the classroom as well as their positive participation in all school activities.
- Beneficial: Helps maintain the beauty of Columbus and the community by respecting all property and taking pride in both their school and community.
- Upright: Truthful in works, honest in deeds, industrious in work, sense of values in life. Loyal to school, church and community.
- Studious: Pursues the vocation of being a student with a zeal for knowledge, and a commitment to doing their very best in the classroom at all times.
